To Whom it may concern,

Jeana Naluai should be allowed a special use permit to teach Hawaiian healing and perform Hawaiian healing in a Spa setting at Hale Hoomana. Jeana is a Hawaiian and a cultural practitioner. It is customary to perform Hawaiian healing in the home, not some strip mall w/ commercial zoning. She should have the right to do that. In addition to lomi lomi, she also teaches and practices ho'oponopono, la'au lapa'au, and oli Hawaii. We are all very blessed to live in Maui and we owe the host culture a lot. It is important to support Hawaiians and their culture. This a fantastic opportunity to do just that.
