Subject: Commission on Persons with Disabilities

Aloha Council Member Mike Molina;

Thank you for the selection I look forward in being on the Commission as I am able to bring more resources and services for Maui County Communities. My working with Individuals with disabilities has been my passion as I continue to research the resources that will benefit our clients. There are also new services and resources that is available and my goal is to connect with these resources that will benefits our service providers and clients as needed.

I am not able to be present due to appointments with new clients. Thank you and will wait to hear if I was selected.
