Accordingly, as a follow-up to your response may I respectfully request that you provide the following additional information:

1. You noted that your current inventory of stockpiled sand is "a little over six years" supply, who supplied Hawaiian Cement with the sand resources in your stockpile?
2. Do you know where your current inventory of stockpiled sand came from? Please identify the location(s).
3. Are you still receiving sand at your plant directly from the source you identified in question 2? If you are receiving sand from other sources please identify the other source location(s).
4. Is the sand you are currently using to provide cement and/or concrete, from your current stockpile? Do you anticipate increasing your sand stockpile in the future? If so, please indicate from what source.
