Our office conducted an inspection on 07/29/2024 at the above-described premises. See Hawaii Revised Statute (HRS) § 132-5.

The investigation found the conditions described below, which we have determined create an unreasonable and/or immediate risk of fire loss. See HRS § 132-6. Additionally, we have determined that such condition(s) violate provisions of the Maui County Fire Code, County Code Chapter 16.04D (the "Maui County Fire Code"). The full Maui County Fire Code, including the National Fire Protection Association's Fire Code and the State Fire Code provisions, is available for use and examination at the Fire Prevention Bureau at 313 Manea Place, Wailuku, Hawai'i and at the County Clerk's Office at 200 South High Street, Wailuku, Hawai'i.

You must take the following corrective actions to remedy these conditions/violations:

Item	Maui County Fire Code Section(s)	Nature of the Violation(s)
1)	10.13.10.1 Vegetation Remove Clippings, etc (NFPA 1, Fire Code Subsection 10.13.10.1) Cut or uncut grass, weeds, or vines and other vegetation shall be removed when determined by the AHJ to be a fire hazard.	put into piles or buried.
	Corrective Action(s)

In the event the violation(s) are not corrected as described above by 09/02/2024, a Notice of Violation and Order will be issued by the Fire Prevention Bureau. You may then be subject to the provisions in Section 16.04D.160, Maui County Code, as may be amended, including but not limited to:

- An initial civil fine of up to $1,000,
- A civil fine of up to $1,000 per day for each day in which the violation(s) persist, and
- Possible criminal prosecution with a fine of up to $1,000 and/or up to six (6) months jail upon conviction of the violation(s).

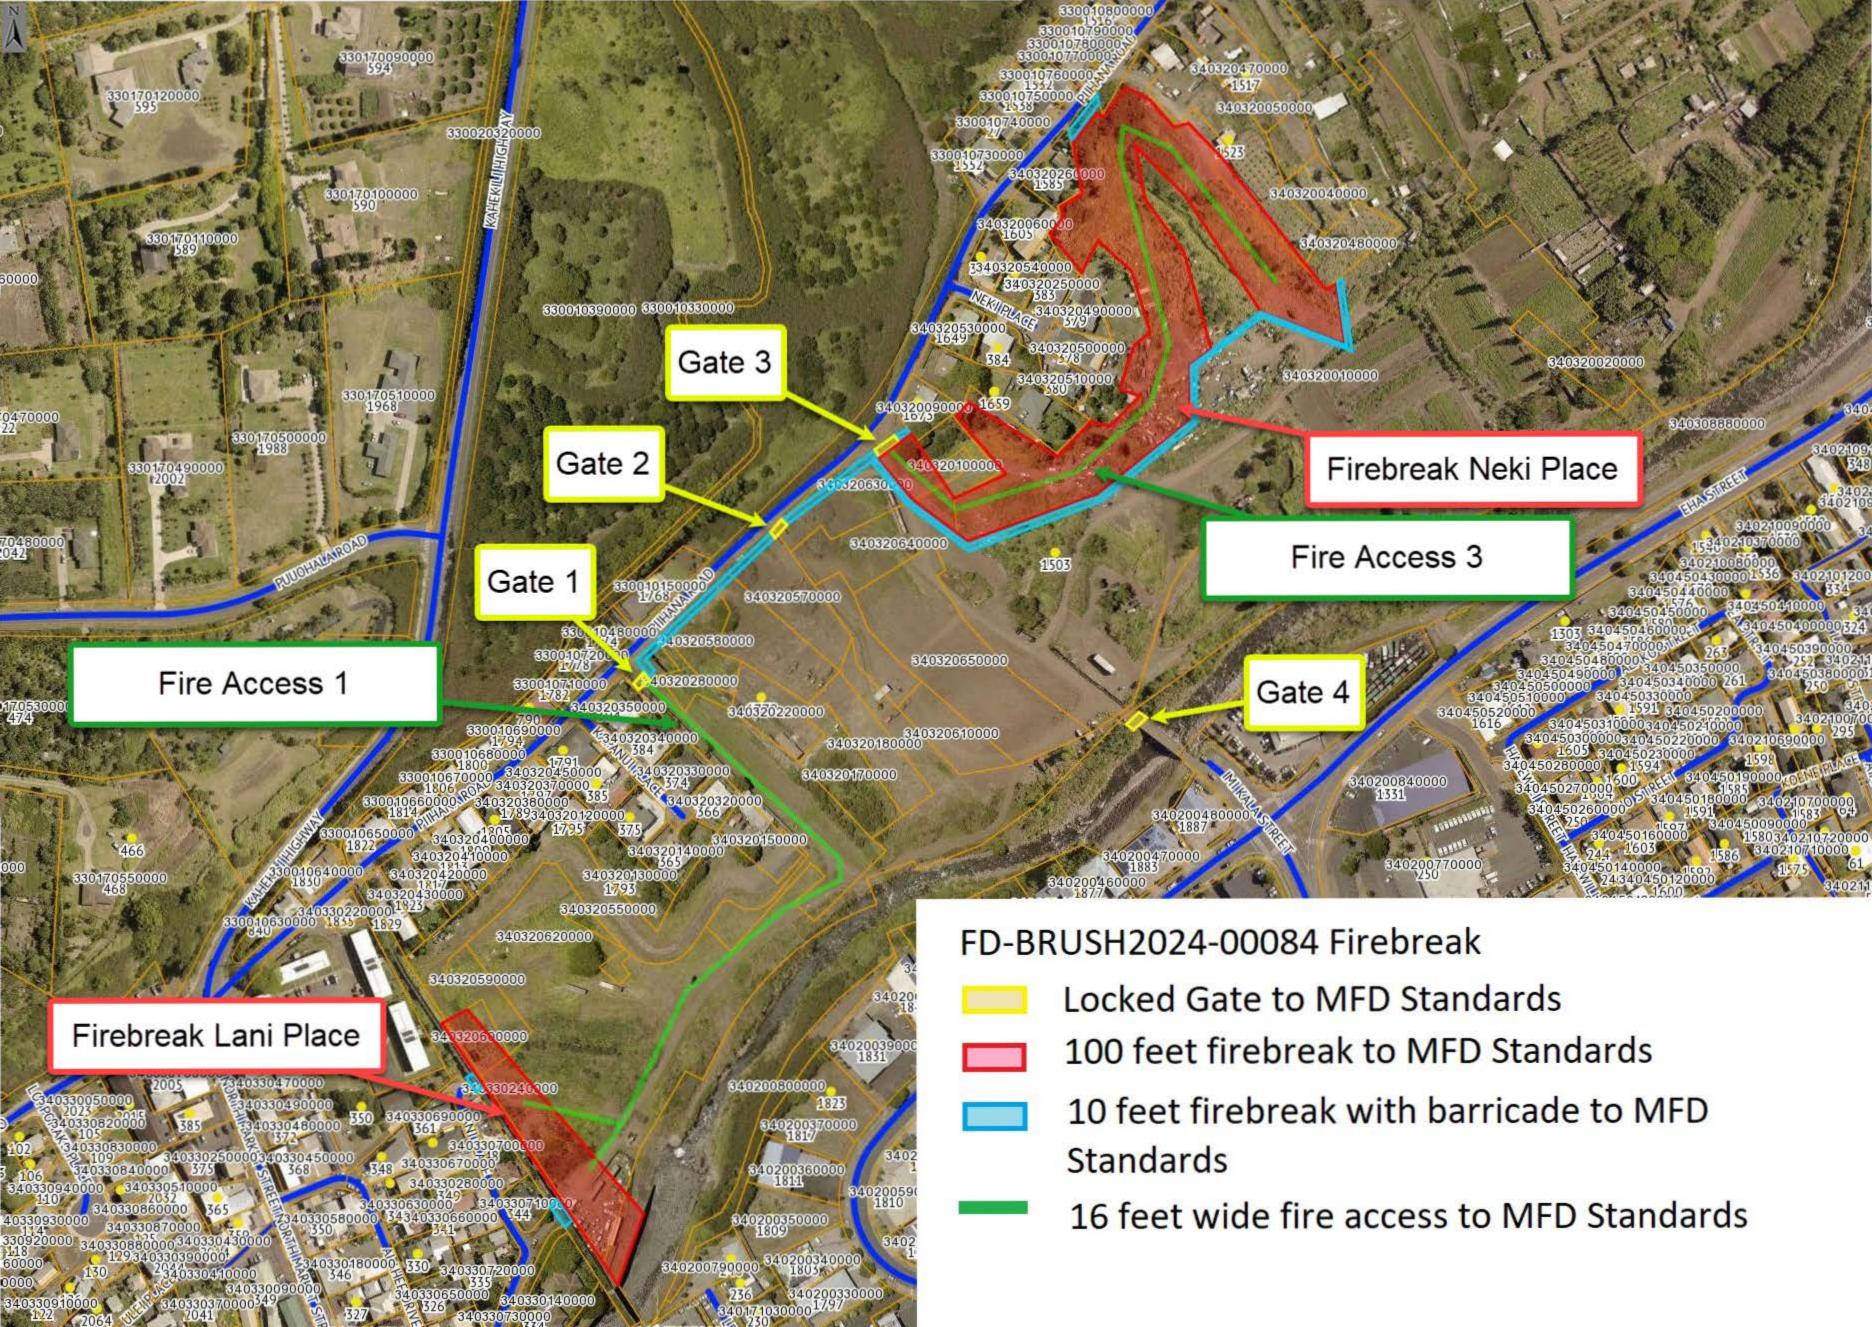

Additionally, if you fail to correct such violation(s) within the specified time, the Fire and Public Safety Chief shall have the authority to remedy the violation(s) at your cost pursuant to HRS § 132-7 and Maui County Code Section 16.04D.160, as may be amended. This cost, if not reimbursed to the County of Maui by you within thirty (30) calendar days, may be placed as a lien upon the real property or premises involved.

Please call Kaunoa Hong at 808-876-4692 to schedule an inspection when the violation(s) have been corrected or if you have any questions regarding this Notice.

Sincerely,

Kaunoa Hong

In the event the violation(s) are not corrected as described above by 09/02/2024, a Notice of Violation and Order will be issued by the Fire Prevention Bureau. You may then be subject to the provisions in Section 16.04D.160, Maui County Code, as may be amended, including but not limited to:

- An initial civil fine of up to $1,000,
- A civil fine of up to $1,000 per day for each day in which the violation(s) persist, and
- Possible criminal prosecution with a fine of up to $1,000 and/or up to six (6) months jail upon conviction of the violation(s).

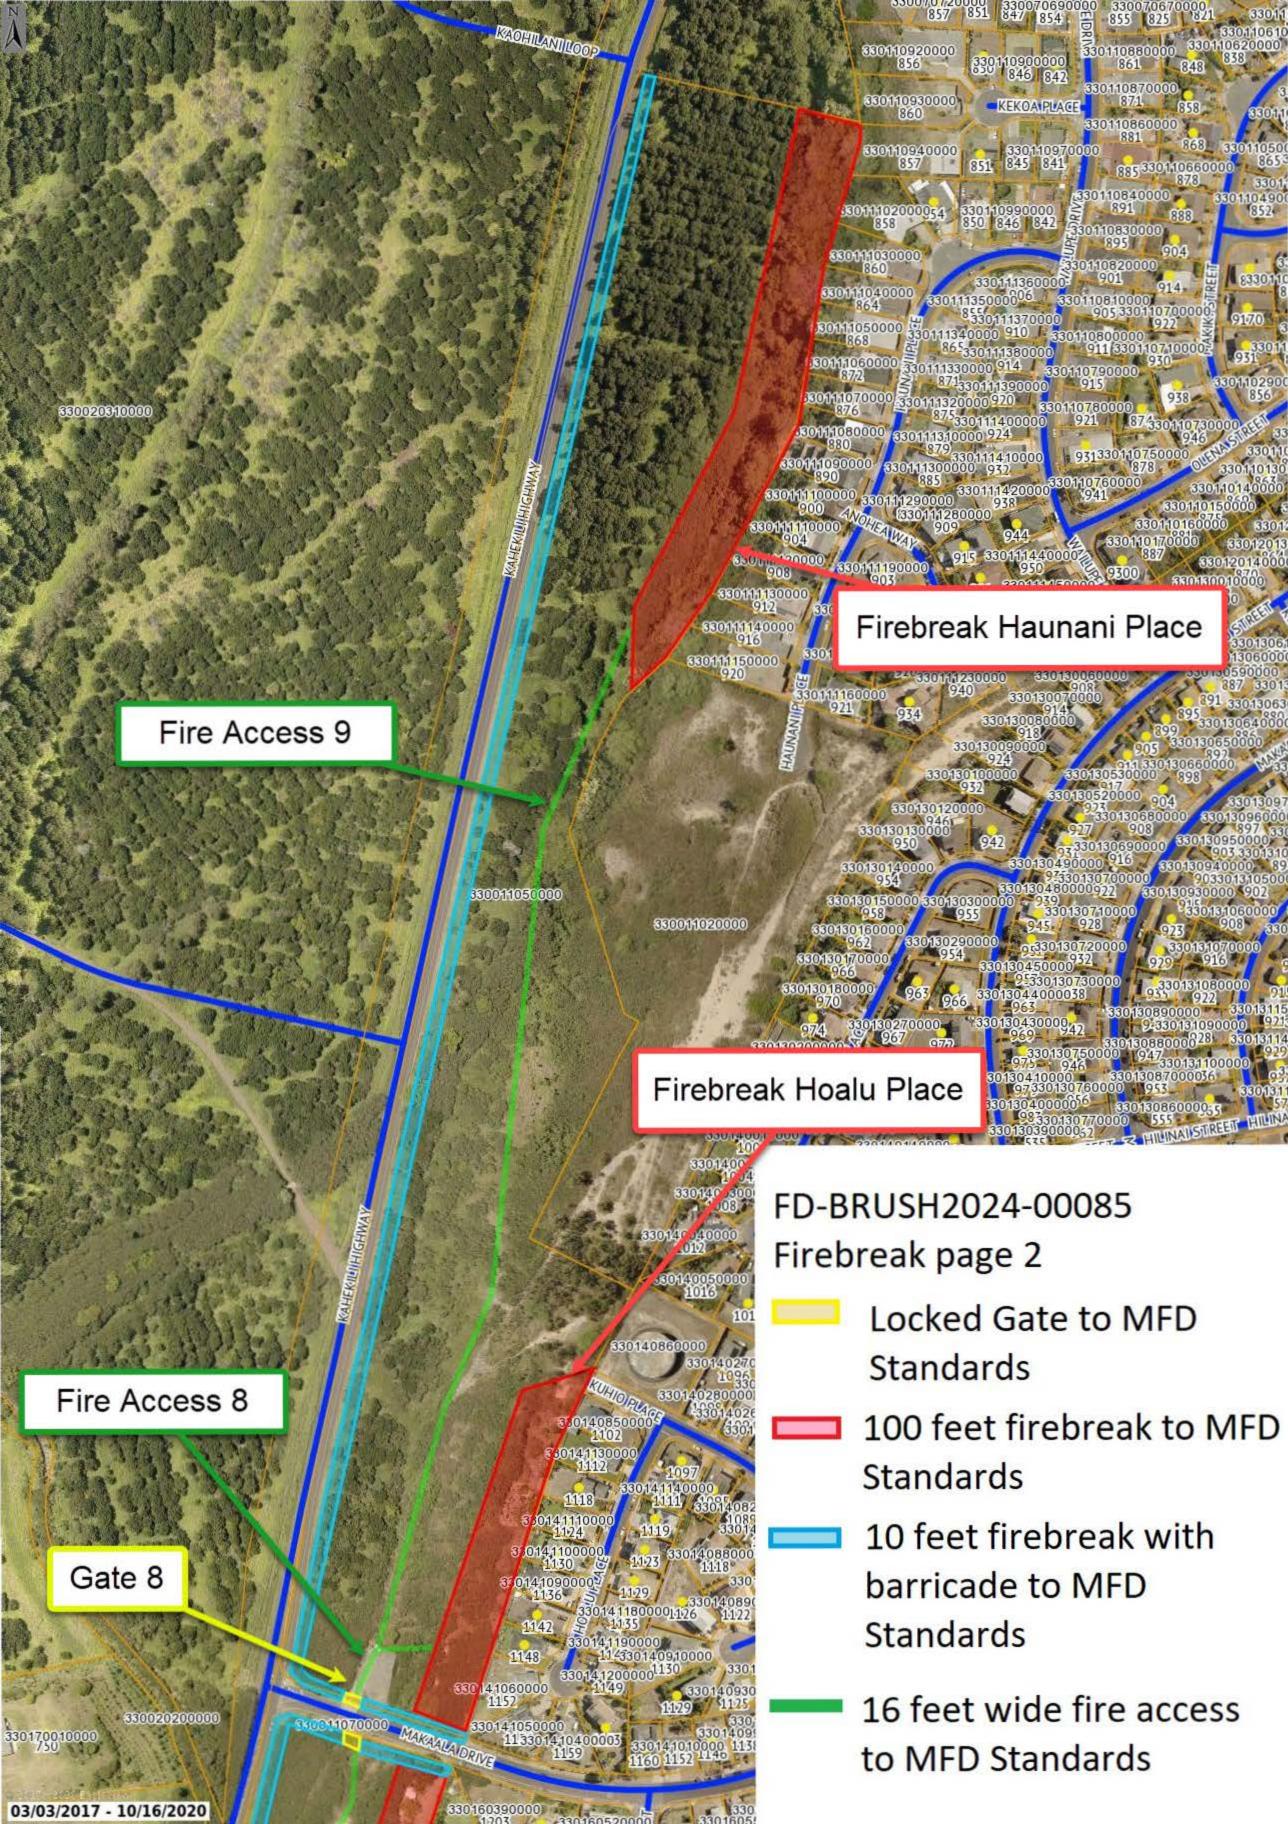

Additionally, if you fail to correct such violation(s) within the specified time, the Fire and Public Safety Chief shall have the authority to remedy the violation(s) at your cost pursuant to HRS § 132-7 and Maui County Code Section 16.04D.160, as may be amended. This cost, if not reimbursed to the County of Maui by you within thirty (30) calendar days, may be placed as a lien upon the real property or premises involved.

Please call Kaunoa Hong at 808-876-4692 to schedule an inspection when the violation(s) have been corrected or if you have any questions regarding this Notice.

Sincerely,

Kaunoa Hong Fire Inspector

RE: Fire Hazard Condition(s) and Maui County Fire Code Violation(s) located at:

ADDRESS: ,

TAX MAP KEY: 2330020310000-75972

Our office conducted an inspection on 07/29/2024 at the above-described premises. See Hawaii Revised Statute (HRS) § 132-5.

The investigation found the conditions described below, which we have determined create an unreasonable and/or immediate risk of fire loss. See HRS § 132-6. Additionally, we have determined that such condition(s) violate provisions of the Maui County Fire Code, County Code Chapter 16.04D (the "Maui County Fire Code"). The full Maui County Fire Code, including the National Fire Protection Association's Fire Code and the State Fire Code provisions, is available for use and examination at the Fire Prevention Bureau at 313 Manea Place, Wailuku, Hawai'i and at the County Clerk's Office at 200 South High Street, Wailuku, Hawai'i.
