I'm interested in serving as a commissioner because I believe in community service to promote the betterment of the future of Mau'i Nui and to protect the limited resources available to us as an Island community. Our future generations depend on us to perpetuate our culture, history and resources for generations to come. I have 17 years of management experience in different capacities in the financial industry and I believe having management and financial experience will be a big asset when it comes to serving on a commission.
