My husband and I have been blessed to live on Maui for nearly a decade. Prior to moving here I lived on the East Coast where I created and ran successful businesses. As an employer ethics and the investment of properly trained employees were essential for the success of those businesses. It is important that employees have a work place they can trust. It is equally important that businesses have an educated workforce to fill employment opportunities. I have experience both as an employer and employee. I would like to contribute to Maui by giving from my well of experience. I have no preference between the committees listed below.
