OFFICE OF THE MAYOR

Why are you interested in serving on a board, commission or committee?

Throughout my 30+ year career, I've worked with diverse and sometimes diverging groups of people to collaborate on solutions. My understanding of problem spaces by starting with multiple perspectives, and making sure we understand the why's...not just the what's...of observation, and empathy to explore different perspectives is both highly rewarding and leads to powerful and effective solutions. I've brought into work with groups that often have opposing perspectives and/or problematic group dynamics to help build effective relationships. Working together to reach effective solutions has been extremely meaningful to me.
