Dear Chair Lindo and Members of the Commission on Healing Solutions for Homelessness:

SUBJECT: BILL 111 (2024), ESTABLISHING PROCEDURES FOR THE REMOVAL AND STORAGE OF PERSONAL PROPERTY IN PUBLIC PLACES AND A RIGHT TO SHELTER (WASSP-13)

Thank you for inviting me to participate in the April 17, 2025, meeting of the Commission on Healing Solutions for Homelessness to discuss Bill 111 (2024).

Because the Council's Budget, Finance, and Economic Development Committee will be holding deliberations on the FY 2026 Budget at that time, I am unavailable to attend. However, please see the following brief timeline of Bill 111:

- Bill 111 was referred from the Council's Water Authority, Social Services, and Parks Committee (2023-2025 Council term) to the Council's WASSP Committee (2025-2027 Council term).
- The WASSP Committee during the prior and current Council terms, met to discuss the bill on October 24, 2024, and December 2, 2024, and on March 24, 2025, respectively.

- The Managing Director transmitted proposed amendments to Bill 111 on October 22, 2024.
- The WASSP Committee received testimony in opposition of the bill from advocates and individuals who have experienced homelessness. More time was requested for the Committee to review the bill.
- I plan to schedule Bill 111 at a future WASSP Committee meeting.

Should you require a designated representative from my office attend the meeting in my place or should you have any questions on Bill 111, please contact me or the Committee staff (Clarissa MacDonald at 808-270-7135, or Criselda Paranada at 808-270-7668).

Sincerely,
