I, Carrie Faucher, am in support of Jeana Naluai owner of Hawaiian Spa Maui LLC DBA Ho'omana Spa to operate a Hawaiian Spa and Cultural Education Center on agricultural property at 1550 Piihola Road. I moved to Maui specifically to learn Lomilomi from Jeana in 2013. The learning that I received went well beyond a massage and I carry the amazing amount of Aloha and cultural knowledge with me as I travel and give lomi to others around the globe.

If anyone deserves to be given this ability to operate on cultural land, it is Jeana. She breathes Aloha, literally. Every bone in her body, every word she speaks to locals and visitors alike, is for the Ina. Her love and passion for Maui and all things Hawaii is a sight to be seen. She fills each of her students with a desire to be the best stewards they can be as they enjoy Maui and all it has to offer.

I live in California now and think of Jeana literally every day because every day I give lomi I am thankful for the gift she gave me to do just that. It is not just a massage, it is a connection with another human formed by love and a desire to make that person whole. Jeana helped make me whole, through lomi and Aloha, and I hope you make her wish come true.

Aloha and Mahalo,
Carrie Faucher
