I have a deep interest in the past and the future of what the Pa'ia-Haiku community looks like, not only for current residents but our future generations. I believe we have an obligation to conserve as much of our history and land as possible, while also providing new opportunities for residents. I have previously led a non-profit and chaired the board of a non-profit, leading me to hone my skills in teamwork, strategic thinking, and planning. My current work, as a professional writer and photographer, dictates that I be an excellent communicator. I have taken a specific focus on land use and conservation in my creative work.
