Aloha Mike,

I hope this email finds you well. I wanted to reach out to you as there has been a recent development in my professional career which has affected my duty to serve on the salary commission.

I have taken a promotion and with the increase to my professional workload my availability to attend commission meetings is limited. Therefore, I must resign as a commissioner.

I am hopeful that as things settle I shall be available again to serve. Thank you always for the privilege to serve in a civic capacity. I wish you all the best.

Warmest Mahalo

Dear Mayor Arakawa,

I am writing to you today to submit my Resignation from the Maui Redevelopment Agency.

This is a difficult action for me to do, since I have enjoyed the ability to serve on this Agency greatly, and feel that a lot of positive progress has been made toward a vibrant and successful future for the town of Wailuku, which I dearly love, during the years that I have been so engaged.

The time is approaching when my wife Helen & I may have an opportunity to work with a potential partner to redevelop a property that we own in Wailuku, and I do not want to create any conflict, real or perceived.

I feel great appreciation for the appointment I received to this august body, and to my fellow commissioners and our brilliant staff, most notably Erin Wade. The great progress that has been achieved in the past several years is the result of the excellence and diligence of Erin and David Yamashita and the Maui Planning Department and others in Maui County's forward thinking and effective Administration. I will always be happy to serve Maui County again in the future if appropriate.

With warmest Aloha,

Jonathan Starr
