Aloha,

I have lived and grown up on the west side of Maui all my life. As a young adult living in and working in Lahaina it is extremely difficult to find reasonable, nice places to rent and live in the area.

In order for us to stay on this side of the island we need rental properties that we can afford and that are safe. If there were places closer we could bike/ walk to work and stores. There would be less people having to commute to and from the other side helping with our traffic. I know personally it has been hard to find a place that I can afford which is disappointing since I have 2 jobs in the Lahaina and Kānāpali area.

Thank you for your time.

Sincerely,
