Honorable Mike Victorino
Mayor, County of Maui
Wailuku, HI 96793

Dear Mayor Victorino:

Thank you for the opportunity to serve on the Cost of Government Commission. However, I have decided to resign from the commission effective immediately. I feel that the commission has become very political and is not functioning completely independently from the county government. Since the addition of several county employees on the commission, including the chief of staff for the chair of the council, I feel we cannot function in a completely unbiased manner. Even though it was stated that the ethics committee had reviewed the addition of county employees to our commission and gave their approval, I feel that the perception in the community may be that the commission has a particular political agenda and this may cause skepticism as to our mission to look at expenditures and processes that might better serve the community in an unbiased manner.

Sincerely,

SHARRON COURTER, CPA, LLC.
