Additional Comments:

I have been on Moloka'i 2 times now, both for the Na Wahine O Kei Kai. I came with my team from Washington DC. These short term rentals for key for us to have a stable and safe place to stay as we prepared for competition. We shopped at local farms (my personal favorite is Kumu Farms and Etty is amazing!), farmer's markets and other local businesses. It gave us a relaxed setting to interact with locals and give them our business. I even referred men's teams to Kumu and the farmer's markets to drive business there when the men show up. The likelihood of us doing this race or other races connected to Moloka'i is significantly reduced/eliminated if this goes through. You will kill your own people. I love giving them my business. Permit short term rental homes. Thank you. Pam Boteler, Washington Canoe Club, Washington DC.
