Gentlemen:

As a resident of Lana'i City, I am in full support of the ground business signs for the various business operations located within Lana'i City "to remain in place".

Over the past few years, the various businesses on Lana'i have revamped their facades and landscaped the store frontages. It is because of that care and love of their business, the image of the business district has improved immensely.

Our family moved to Lana'i (from Maui) in 1956. Since "small kid time" to present, I've personally seen many changes to our island community. I love the current ground signs and believe the ground signs should not be removed. There was a great amount of thought, care and love that went into the design of each ground sign. If you don't agree, then I suggest to all of you to take a walk around our Lana'i City business district. The sight is priceless. Keep the ground signs in.

Thank you for allowing me to express my thoughts on this issue. Should you have questions please feel free to contact me. Again, mahalo. Kamsamida

Sincerely,

/s/ Dotty Eharis Yoza
