I have been in business for myself, along with my husband, for the last 11 years on Molokai. I am born and raised on Molokai and love my island and its people. I understand what its like trying to raise a family on Molokai and also trying to make a living here, providing for my family + the families of those we employ. I understand trying to keep Molokai, "Molokai" but also the need to be able to support ourselves and feel that I will view issues w/ a fair and honest opinion. I want to be able to give back to my community by serving on Employment History: the commission and to be involved in the decisions that shape our island's community + businesses.
